

In "Color the Market", Amira and Luis color The Market at Delta College to make it bright and fun. You can color too and bring The Market to life!

Welcome to the Market

Amira and her little brother Luis were excited! They were going to The Market at Delta College. But when they got there, something was missing. "Where are the colors?" asked Amira. "Let's color everything ourselves!" said Luis. They smiled and ran in to start coloring.

Food Trucks

First, they saw food trucks. "Yum!" said Luis. But the trucks had no colors. Amira colored the ice cream truck with rainbows. Luis helped. Now the food looked yummy!

Fun with Costumes

Next, they found a booth with clothes. Amira put on a hat. She colored it with flowers. Luis found a superhero shirt and made it his favorite color. Now they looked great!

Old Treasures

They found old toys and clocks. Luis saw a toy train. "Let's make it colorful!" he said. Amira made the cabin one of her favorite colors, and Luis colored the wheels. Now it looked fun!

Bargain Hunt

Mom and Dad found toys to buy. Amira got a puppy lamp. She colored it with spots. Luis colored its nose and ears. It looked perfect now!

Carnival Booth

Then they saw a carnival booth! Amira and Luis played a ring toss game with their friends and won some stickers. They colored the stickers with stars, hearts, and fun patterns.

Time to Go Home

At the end of the day, The Market was full of colors! Amira and Luis were happy. "We made everything bright!" said Amira. They smiled and couldn't wait to come back and color again.
